Kainos (Keye-noss): An adjective meaning "new"; can be used with reference to something that has not been used before...

"No one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost and the skins as well; but one puts new wine into fresh wineskins." Mark 2:22

1. A New Wine

Isaiah 40:31: "Yet those who wait for the Lord will gain new strength; They will mount up with wings like eagles, They will run and not get tired, They will walk and not become weary."

Kainos is also used with the connotation of "remarkable" as a designation of something that is "new" and not known previously.

2. A New Walk

Mark 1:27: "They were all amazed, so that they debated among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him."

Also: Psalm 25: 4-14

3. A New Song

Isaiah 42:10: "Sing to the Lord a new song, Sing His praise from the end of the earth!"

Ps. 149:1 "Praise the Lord! Sing to the Lord a new song, and His praise in the congregation of the godly ones."

The same word qualifies something as "new" in the sense of replacement for something that is old and obsolete – as in the "new covenant."

4. A New Heart

Ezek. 36:26 "Moreover, I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; and I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh."

2 Cor. 5:17 "Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come."

5. A New Commandment

John 13:34: "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another."

Also: Col 3:1-10

Kainos is used in an eschatological sense to describe the "new" heaven and earth.

6. A New Future

Mt. 26:29: "But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom."

Rev. 21:2: "And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband."
